

BANKER AND CONGRESSMAN.

MR. VOORHUIS' MANAGEMENT OF A NEW JERSEY

An adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Hackensack Bank, of which Congressman Charles H. Voorhis was president, was held in the bank build-

Groote and Mr. John Swinburne, cashier of the First National Bank of Paterson, were appointed as a committee to examine into the affairs of the bank, and it was principally to hear their report that yesterday's meeting was called. Mr. Voorhis' liabilities are now set down at about $250,000, with but few available assets. The committee reported that out of $131,000 loans and discounts made under Voorhis' presidency $81,000 are totally worthless, $30,000 doubtful and the balance available. On the list of liabilities and bad debts are to be found the following:—Charles H. Voorhis, executor of Tallman estate, $11,000, the estate never being considered worth more than $6,000; $10,000 in promissory notes signed by Mr. Voorhis' wife, total loss; Mr. Voorhis' own notes for $9,000, indorsed by himself and secured by stock of the Hakeness Water Company, which is owned and controlled by Voorthuis, amounting to nearly $20,000, and judgment against I. S. Christie, amounting to $9,400, utterly worthless. These and other small debts make up the sum of $80,000. There were also discovered over drafts, made upon the bank by Voorthuis, amounting to $10,000.

$1,800, and C. H. Voorhis, executor, $500. It is also reported that the Third National Bank of New York holds a note of $10,000 drawn by the Hackensack

The committee presented three schedules to the stockholders for their consideration. Schedule No. 1 was to be made good if the old capital of $100,000 was retained—viz., seventy-three per cent. to be paid in cash, and twenty-seven per cent. to be paid in by stockholders in the event of a reduction of capital to $50,000—viz., forty-three per cent. Schedule No. 2 was to be made good if the old capital was retained—viz., seventy-three per cent. to be paid in by stockholders, should the bank go into liquidation—viz., twenty-five per cent. Of the 634 shares of the bank stock owned originally by the New York and Jersey City banks, the holders of New York and Jersey City banks, the holders of which refuse to become owners, as by doing so they would be liable for the balance of the bank, would be responsible for the liabilities of the bank.

NO MORE.

It was also discovered by the committee that, notwithstanding the fact that the liabilities of the Hackensack Bank explicitly states that the president should give a bond in the sum of $100,000, which does not cover the liabilities of the bank, the president the securities from which the stockholders might possibly realize something. Several of the bank presidents, among others Mr. Jordan, of New York, and Mr. George W. Newell, of Jersey City, examining the schedules, refused to have anything further to do with the matter and expressed their entire disapproval of the same. The committee, after this communication was read at the meeting from the Comptroller of the Currency to the effect that if the proceed, also go into liquidation. The meeting was adjourned until Saturday morning, when it is expected that some conclusive action will be taken by the stockholders. Mr. Voorhis still remains in Hackensack, but is seldom seen outside of his residence and refuses to converse upon the subject of his bankruptcy.

BISHOP POTTER'S EPISCOPAL COMMEMORATION—OUTLINE OF SERVICES IN TRINITY CHURCH AND THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Trinity Church will resound next Saturday with the voice of joy and melody because the Episcopal Bishop of this diocese, the Right Rev. Horatio Potter, D. D., L.L. D., D. C. L., will then complete twenty-five years of episcopal jurisdiction over the diocese of New York. The commemorative service will begin at eleven o'clock A. M., and Bishop Potter, Bishop Doane, of Albany; Bishop Little John, of Long Island, and probably Bishop Coxe, of Western New York, will officiate. The clergy of the diocese who may attend will obtain access through the tower door of the church.

The rectors, wardens and vestry of each parish in the diocese are invited and the rectors and delegates to the respective diocesan conventions in Albany, Long Island and Central New York dioceses, and also the

When Bishop Potter began his episcopate here twenty-five years ago all these dioceses were included in the diocese of New York. But the growth of the Church in the State since has necessitated the erection of five dioceses within a boundary which formerly included them as one. Everts will deliver the address of congratulation to Bishop Potter. Then will follow the presentation to the Bishop, on behalf of the diocese, of a beautiful

The committees in charge have spared neither time nor cost to make the affair a complete success. The choir, consisting of the following members, will sing the hymns and the chorales, and the organ will furnish music for the occasion, and at the close of the principal exercises wharers will present the guests to the refreshment table.

thus honored, his admirers hold, is due very largely to the growth of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this city and State and in the United States.

DR. BURCHARD'S INSTALLATION.

Rev. Dr. Burchard resigned a few months ago the pastorate of the Thirteenth Street Presbyterian Church, which he had served forty years, and last night he was installed again as pastor of the Murray Hill Church in the same denomination. The pulpit was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and on the front of the organ, in the rear of the pulpit, was a row of garlands of evergreens and flowers, with the initials "S. E. B." on the Doxology stand and "H. H. B." on the organ.

same materials, with the motto "Welcome." The Doctor has been preaching there for a few Sundays, and the people are flocking to him. The evening almost filled the edifice. The Rev. Prof. Chapin, late moderator of the Presbytery of New York last year, and Dr. Devan, the new moderator, put the constitutional questions to pastor and people; the Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby preached the installation sermon, which was a fine practical and graceful exposition of the words of St. Paul, II, 18:—"Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and of the love which is shed abroad in your hearts by the Holy Ghost, who is given unto us, that we should be able to minister one to another in love, as the members of His body." The pastor then gave a charge to the pastor, and created a little mirth by stating the awkwardness of his position, delivering a charge to a minister who was first installed a few minutes before he was called to the pulpit; and, therefore, to say to him as Paul said to Timothy, "Thou therefore my son," Rev. Dr. Rockwell, of Great Britain, "be diligent in these things; and thou shalt win a good warfare, having thyself and those with thee in the love which is shed abroad in your hearts." The pastor also in a very practical manner, and the installation prayer was delivered by Professor Chapin. Dr. Devan then gave the benediction, and, afterwards, after which the church members and friends present extended their greetings to him.
